

VOLUME FIVE

Timothy, write these words, these words spoken of, and by, The Lord God Almighty.

Thus says The Lord: I am come! I have sent out the messengers before My face.

Whose is the face and the image of The Lord?...It is even He I have sent and He who I am sending. He waits no longer knocking. Enter and reap, oh Son of Man, glorified Son of the Most High.

Thus says The Lord: I am your Savior...there is none other. There is none like Me, save He who is of Me and I of He, Christ The Lord, Lord of Hosts. The Lord of Sabaoth is His name, Jesus the Gift and Ransom, both Lord and Lamb, Lion and King.

The Spirit is poured, the multitude sent out. They are Elijah and John...first baptizing, then a marvelous work working through men...My witnesses, 144,000. Yea, even Elijah and Moses shall come prophesying in My name, the coming of The Holy One, called Christ. These are the two lampstands who shout their proclamation before The Lord of the universe.

Who else shall I send? Who will go for Me? Who will noise in the four corners? Who will shout from the roof tops? Who will go forth in the name of The Lord?...I shall anoint all who go for Me, with My Spirit and Truth.

Watchmen, go forth, sound the Trumpet...the great and terrible Day of The Lord draws nigh! Repent, and be spared, says The Lord. The Thief has already entered the house. He has but to call out, and you shall be snatched away. Do not wait, little children, for the Master comes to cleanse the house of all its fornications and adulteries committed against its Creator.

Thus says The Lord: The wrath of The Lord has come. His anger is kindled, and will soon be ablaze with His judgments raining down from Heaven upon the whole multitude...in every nation, in every land, in every corner. Who can hide from the face of the wrath of God, shown in all the heavens as a raging fire burning in His fury, poured out into the cup of His indignation? Even so, whosoever calls on the name of The Lord, and accepts The Son of Salvation, shall be spared in that Day, for it comes upon you quickly, says The Lord.

Thus says The Lord: I have trumpeted...you have covered your ears. I will show signs and wonders the like of which have never been seen and never shall be again...yet you shall cover your eyes. This is but a small thing for The Lord; the judgement on Egypt, a mere twinkle in the vesture of God's power.

Thus says The Lord God: Judgment is come. Judgment shall fall, fall upon the backs of the wicked and haughty, the high-minded and the oppressor...on the whole multitude, of the whole earth, shall it fall. All shall be broken...some broken and lifted up, and many more, broken and condemned.

Thus says The Lord: I shall not make a total end of this generation, for the elect's sake shall I save the redeemed. Before the sixth seal is broken, I shall deal to the hard-hearted a glancing blow...one shall be taken and the other left. Thus is the inheritance of the hard-of-heart, those who continually shout, 'Nay! Nay!'. No more! The upright in heart shall not be found, nor seen. Yea, even the dead who sleep, having lived unto The Lord, shall be gone from the earth. The earth shall starve, its light taken...darkness is across the land, filling the entire earth.

Thus says The Lord: Your Redeemer, He who has redeemed you, lives! His time has come, His will be done as The Father has purposed from the beginning. He has come, and is come, to gather His own whom I have given Him. They shall rest and give worship, even seven times. Then shall He show His glory, the glory of the Almighty God.

Travesty, great travesty is coming!... and glory for those who glory in Him, who is their Ransom.

Judgment for all, who have denied the power and the glory of the one and only man who was, and is, God...
sent to them, dying, and then exalted to My right hand,
so they may live and not die.

Love your Lord, your God, with your whole heart.
Give it to Him, who is the Love, the very Mercy of My heart shown upon you.

My justice is a just judgment...
My love, an all encompassing fire for My beloved creation.

Come to Me, your Father, and be lifted up to Me by way of My Son... abiding with Me, forever and ever. Amen.

2/17/06 From Jesus Christ Our Lord and Savior -
A Letter Given to Timothy, For Jana and For All Those Who Have Ears to Hear
Harken First Unto The Lord, For He Is The Beginning Of All Things

You are beloved of The Lord. Your time has come to be completely free from the tempter and live unto The Lord. All who would be free are free in Me.

You have obeyed your husband - in this, you do well. But remember who it is you must serve first and foremost. To honor your husband is well and good. Remember God's first command...in serving The Father shall one also serve those they love, because they had first loved Me. To love Me is to love The Father. No one has seen The Father or knows Him, as I know Him. I am your Father, and My Father is in Me, and I in He, and We are in you...being the very same who made you in the beginning, when you were yet in the bosom of The Father.

You have drawn near to Me with your mouth during your life, yet your life is not in keeping with whose name you proclaim. Follow My commands and walk in My ways; and then shall I lead you along the path of living waters, wherein you shall find a fountain and well-spring coming forth out of your heart, which was once as the world's heart, dark and troubled, now becoming free and cleansed. So come, My child, and bring to Me your supplications, and I will heal your iniquities and remember your sins no more.

Will you go for Me? Will you walk not where others walk? To stand for Me is to stand separated from the world and all others who would stand against Me. At My right hand is where you shall reside in the Day that comes quickly, wherein you shall not be found by your husband, nor any of your neighbors. I see a light shining in you amongst the darkness. Embrace that light and forsake the world, and this dark shall flee from you. You need only call on My name and follow My ways, and you shall be freed indeed. Harken to the voices of those who love Me...to them shall you go. They are My trumpets, and in them shall you find fellowship. Timothy is just one among many I have sent out. Do not fear him or his words...they are not his own. Fear God...who brings all the Word, spoken, to fulfillment, by Me.

I am The Christ, The Holy One of Israel.
Jesus, the Gift, is My name...

The Holy One sent of God, in His image...

the Face of the Almighty, shown on all His children in His loving mercy.

Amen.

2/9/06 From Jesus Christ Our Lord and Savior -
A Letter Given To Timothy, For All Those Who Have Ears to Hear

The Sower Has Sown, Yet the Seeds Have Fallen Among The Thorns and Stoney Places

What is done is done, but need not be. Many are lost in confusion, having heard but denied the power thereof. And to the nay-sayers...woe, I say to them. They also do not know or understand the power of The Lord. They remain lost in their own deceptions of what they think is the truth, reconciling in their own minds that they know the will of The Father and the meaning of the Word...such arrogant, high-minded children stomping upon the new faith sprouting in others. These cannot bear to hear the Truth Absolute. They wish for that which is malleable and yielding to their own evil desires. And so it is fulfilled, those words spoken by The Son of Man so long ago: In so many stoney places have I sown My Word...springing forth quickly, receiving and understanding My words' meaning. Then, when the heat of persecution arises, oh how quickly they fall away, sinking back into the mire of their own lives they see as comfortable and unchangeable. Woe to the nay-sayers...woe, I say to them. You shall be the first to be thrown from your mounts, landing face down in the mud of disillusionment and shame. Wipe your faces, and behold the splendor from on high, for it comes nigh.

Look up...I am the First and the Last, the Word of God.

I have come to reap what I have sown...

and punish those, who have sown seeds of dissension and falsehood in My Garden.

Even so...Amen.

2/17/06 From God The Father and Our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ -
A Letter Given to Timothy, For All Those Who Have Ears to Hear
The Mountains Shall Crumble and Fall Upon the Desolate

Thus says The Lord God, the God of Jacob, the God of Isaac, the God of Abraham: I am the I AM. I am God alone... there is none like Me!

Thus says The Lord your God to those who have ears, but will not hear: You are maimed. Your ears have been hacked off, and you shall be cut off. The world, this world of lies, has seduced you, and you have embraced the seduction. You have all went the way of the harlot, lying down in the bed of false doctrine, confusion and self-gratification... denying the One who I, even I, have sent to you in My Image, the Face of The Lord your God, your Redeemer.

Thus says The Lord to the maimed and broken-hearted, all you blind, deaf, and dumb spirits: Awaken, and free yourself from the deluge of lies and sin. Immerse yourself in the Healing Pool of Tranquility, where hope is in The Lord, nothing doubting. Heal your spirits...your sins are forgiven you in His blood, the blood poured out through My only Begotten Son, Christ Jesus, The Lord of Hosts.

Thus says The Lord: You have denied Him, having sinned the sin by which you shall surely die. You have sinned against the blood of sprinkling, which makes atonement for your transgressions, so you may live.

[Jesus]

Thus says The Lord of Sabaoth: You have rejected life and forsaken your forgiveness. Yours is the grave of sorrows and mourning of the broken-hearted...lying down, dying, tearing My Spirit, having rent your souls in twain. Oh My beloved, why have you forsaken Me? My heart bleeds with sorrow, great and bitter sorrow.

Listen to what The Christ, The Son of God, says: You have entered into, and will yet enter, the land of the shadow of death. Darkness has fallen across the land...the light removed from its place and found no more in the earth. How, then, will you see, beloved and lost? The light is taken, and judgment must now reign. I am the Open Door, having ripped the curtain in twain so you may enter...yet you will not enter. I send you My prophets and apostles, My lambs amongst the wolves...you have slain them all. And yet do I still send more, even now a great multitude as The Father has commanded...you will stone them as in all times past. Beware to the arrogant, the high-minded and to all adopted sons of satan!

Thus says The Holy One of Israel, who has died and is alive forevermore: I had come to save you and not condemn. I am now come again, and you yet forbear...you will not harken. I have come to judge and condemn. All your musings, and all that you spew at My chosen, shall return to you ten-fold, and crush you beneath the weight of Truth. My prophets are sent out ahead of the storm. They shall call out to the nations...they shall call out, whether you will hear or whether you will forbear...they shall sing. For it has been appointed, to all God's sealed and anointed, to sing the songs of The Lamb, slain from the foundation of the world...yea, they shall sing a new song, the likes of which only they know and was appointed to them. They shall sing with a loud voice, in concert, so all may hear. Whether or not they will hear or forbear, the song must be sung and is sung already.

Thus says The Lord God, the One and Only Holy Father, Creator of Heaven and earth: Listen to My Son and those who go out in His name!

Judgment is come...behold the signs.
Feel the footsteps and the quaking of the feet of The Holy One of Israel.

Come and kiss The Son...embrace Him.

Resist Him not, lest you suffer His wrath... for all the mountains shall crumble, and all high places brought low, when His anger is kindled but a little.

My Kingdom was come, and you would not see...
and so it is come, and will be established forever and ever.

Woe to the wicked and the concubines of satan...
you shall be dust beneath My feet in that Day!

2/24/06 From God The Father -
A Letter Given to Timothy, For All Those Who Have Ears to Hear

Woe to the Captives of This World...The Prison House is Opened, Yet You Remain Therein Holding Onto Your Sin, Abiding In Your Transgression

Thus says The Lord your God: Harken unto My Word, oh house of Jacob. Listen, all you captives in Israel, and all in the isles have understanding. Hear the voice of The Lord God, the only God, all you people in the desert and desolate lands, even all unto the bitter ends of the earth. Hear the Word of The Lord, you who dwell in the fenced cities, where satan dwells... come out, and humble yourselves before your God. You have forgotten Me, and denied My name, the name of The Lord given to Him who I have sent to you as Savior, Christ The Lord.

Harken, says The Lord. I am come...a fury of judgment shall blaze before Me. Woe to you, oh mountains...woe to you, oh giants...woe to you, all hidden and dark places... you are not hidden from the eyes of The Lord, nor have you escaped My judgment. You have forgotten Me, having went out parading your whoredoms.

Hear the voice of the Almighty, The Holy One of Israel: I have not forgotten and I have remembered your evil-doings, and that which you have surmised is not hidden from Me. I have left you desolate, none having heard the voice of The Lord in all the land, save those I have sent to you. All have went out seeking, yet none have found even one spring of living water flowing from the mountain in purity...all is corrupt and decay, dry bones in a wasteland of iniquity and sin, great and evil sins. None harken, all cry, 'Cast these shackles from us. Let us go our own way. Our knowledge has reached past Heaven. Our egos reign!'

Thus says The Lord: The mountains and all high places shall crumble before the quaking footsteps of The Lord. All giants shall fall by the sword, by their own sword which they have wielded in bitter arrogance and greed, having given heed to every evil desire and temptation of the evil one. All, that is hidden, shall be seen, and all the dark places shall not escape the glory of The Lord.

Take up a lamentation, My children, and I may yet have mercy on you. Cry out to The Lord, saying, 'We have done an evil thing. We are desolate, starving, and in bitter thirst. Heal our wounds, oh Lord. We have eaten up all the bread, and broken every stave, and defecated in the springs and pools of living water you have given us to drink from. Save us, oh Lord.'

Thus says The Lord, your God, The Redeemer of Israel, to all those in the hills and mountains and those who are afar off: I have saved you already, having sent The Lamb of God slain from the foundation of the world. He was come into the world, and you would not receive Him. Blessed are they, who have received, for they know Him. He is come again, and He have I poured out on every nation, yet you are offended in Him. Blessed are the thirsty, who have drunk deeply...they are filled with His glory. He is yet come again, and you will neither see nor hear Him. Blessed are they, who see and hear Him, for they shall be gone from the earth, and none shall find them; for they have both accepted and received of My cup filled with the blood of atonement.

Now must you, My insolent children, also drink from yet another cup I must pour out...and yea, all shall drink from it, all those who would not harken unto Me. It is the chalice of My reckoning, and it shall eat you up. Even so, blessed are all those who call on the name of The Lord in that Day. They shall be saved and shall not want, for I shall be with them...what is impossible with man is possible with God.

Listen and give heed to the watchmen, for The Lord dare not stay silent anymore, lest all perish by the way, having tread upon the wide path to destruction. The voice of The Lord is sent out and sounds in the ears of the watchmen and the hearts of My witnesses. They shall lead you out of the storm; and they shall endure, even unto the end, for the sake of the remnant.

Watchmen, hear the voice of The Lord and give heed, and obey all I command of you. Give unto this strange people your testimony, and a testimony in your bodies upon every Sabbath day, the seventh day of each week. Not on the first, nor on the second...yea, the seventh shall you eat no foods of any kind, nor any drink, save pure water. Let this be a testament unto those who are near and those who are afar off, for during the light you shall honor My command, and fast. Drink only water that is completely pure, for I have poured upon you the fullness of My Spirit, the very Water of Life, which you have received in Christ Jesus The Lord. And so that by which you have drank shall you share with all those who seek after Me. The Bread of Life was sent, and has already been broken for all. Eat not any earthly bread...receive of the Bread from Heaven, and pour upon the desolate that which you have drank. Watchmen, this shall you do as a testimony and a lamentation to the people every Sabbath day, until again The Lord has come. Then shall you fast never again, having received the True Bread and Water from Heaven that shall sustain you unto eternal life, being both in you and with you, forever and ever.

The whole world is in famine, eating from the table of lies...
yea, a feast of abominations, leaving them starved and dying.

Listen, My children...your Redeemer lives, and shall feed all who have eaten of His body and drank of His blood. These shall be gathered, and nourished for one week in the house of The Lord.

Woe to the house of satan...your children shall be meat and drink for the birds of the air and beasts of the earth, in the great and terrible Day of The Lord God Almighty that comes quickly.

You Shall Not Tempt The Lord Your God

Paul, listen to what The Lord says: Stop these vain babblings. You intend to bring Timothy low, so you can show yourself exalted. Your boastings have come up before Me as a stench and a stave which you have broken. Your pride has lead you astray, proudly displaying it as a banner of arrogance. Your knowledge is come to nothing before The Lord, asking questions of My servant...you, yourself, knowing the answers, having not heeded that which you know. You are a learned man; yet by your learning, you have become as the unlearned. You say, 'Prove to me your speech, so I shall know the truth of your words.' Shall you tempt The Lord your God by way of them I have sent? You fear, and so you strive over words, lest one come and say to you, 'Thus says The Lord', and all that you have wrought in your life is found wanting. I require of those, who would speak and teach in My name, a greater portion of responsibility to their First Love, seasoned with humility and faith and love for those they teach, giving heed to sound doctrine spoken of by the prophets of old and now of this day...of such one, you now know.

Timothy has not understanding in himself. It is by the grace of God, and his total acceptance of Christ, that he both hears and sees. You say you see and hear, and so you think you know...this is why you do not understand. All those, who exalt themselves, shall be abased; and the humble, penitent man shall be exalted. And so it is also with the humble, who cry, 'I am dumb, I have no speech. Neither can I hear, oh Lord. I am not worthy. Help me, oh Lord. Cleanse me of these things I hold onto. I give totally of myself to you, oh Lord.' To these shall wisdom be given...yea, even more shall they receive.

Shall, then, Timothy obey you, a man, or God? Nothing that Timothy does, according to Me, is of his own doing...his life is not his own. He has given it up as an offering to Me. So then, what you ask of him you ask of Me, for He brings all asked of him before Me. What Timothy has written, he has written, and it stands. For all he has written is of My doing...I am the Author and the Finisher. Even that which he has already answered you is not of his own making. It is, as men say, "inspired in the Spirit". Remember this, and have understanding of The Lord's purpose: Timothy, and a multitude like him, have been sent out to draw all who will be drawn to the Truth, those who have not yet been drawn of men. For I have poured out My Spirit in the whole earth in these last days, and few have harkened to Me, save those who now seek that which they have not sought before...to these is Timothy sent. To you, and all churchly men, you shall receive correction. For I, The Lord your God, shall correct and discipline those I love...and even more shall I do according to those who would speak and teach on My behalf.

Oh poor son of men, you say you are rich, yet you have become poor. You have studied My Word in Scripture, yet have not recognized the Trumpet before you, and seek to cover the eyes of My watchman and stanch his soundings. Take heed to yourself, and listen to what the Spirit inside you says, and that which was spoken of through that very same Spirit: "Beloved, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they be of God, because many false prophets are gone out into the world. Hereby you know the Spirit of God: Every spirit, who confesses that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh, is of God. And every spirit, who confesses not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh, is not of God, and this is that spirit of antichrist, whereof you have heard that it should come, and now already is it in the world."

Again, I say to you, you shall know My prophets by their fruits. Do men gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles? So every good tree brings forth good fruit, but a corrupt tree brings forth evil fruit. Neither can a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit. Every tree, that brings not forth good fruit, is hewn down and cast into the fire...by their fruits you shall know them.

Wherein, Paul, do you see the works of satan? Shall satan stand divided against himself? Be very careful, My son, for you have blasphemed the words of the Most High, saying they are satanic. Shall The Lord answer men such as these?...Lo, I have answered you still, because of that which is in your heart. For he, the evil one, who you have charged against Timothy, is the very same one who has cast a stumbling block before your own feet. For it is written, "If any man teaches otherwise, and consents not to the wholesome words, the words of our Lord Jesus Christ, and to the doctrine which is according to godliness, he is proud, knowing nothing, but doting about questions and strifes of words, whereof comes envy, strife, railings, evil surmisings," - which, verily, I say unto you, you have done. Repent, therefore, and escape the many snares of the devil, for he is gone out into the world seeking whom he might devour, especially those who go out in My name teaching and proclaiming the doctrines of men.

Paul, understand My words, and take to heart My meaning...you are beloved. You do not hear My voice as Timothy, but My voice remains in you. I have not forsaken you, and do I still send you. Out do I send you, to lead all who will be led, leading them to Christ, the Only Way. So stop judging by human standards...judge by right standards.

Know this: The Bridegroom is come, and is yet come, to call upon His bride, and will yet arrive with her in the Day of His vengeance to establish His Kingdom. Therefore, be ready, and give heed to My correction, and you shall be clothed in white and escape the judgment that must shortly fall upon the whole world.

A Letter Given to Timothy, For Paul L. and For All Those Who Have Ears to Hear

You cannot know the day or the hour, but I tell you the truth, the season is upon you and draws near quickly... not as you believe or have foreseen...rather, exactly as it is, and was, written.

I have spoken and given you these words as a rod by which you shall govern yourself, yet resist do you still. You have already gone your own way...My words have fallen on deaf ears, having denied the power thereof. Yet My words will not return to Me void. By your disobedience shall I bring many into My obedience, by having read this very same word first given to you. Be not downhearted...yet shall you be lifted up, being redeemed by your faith and love for My Son, Christ Jesus. For love and mercy's sake, and your belief in God's Only Son, are you saved, falling not under condemnation because of your error.

My ways are not the ways of men, nor can any approach Me.

To this end have I sent My Only Begotten, Jesus Christ...

both Lord and Savior to men.

3/19/06 From God The Father -

A Letter Given to Timothy, For All Those Who Have Ears to Hear

The Light is Taken From You...Heed the Trumpet of the Watchmen

Timothy, listen. Heed the words of The Lord your God.

As I brought forth My people out of Egypt, I shall do so again. For their cries have reached Heaven, and their enemies surround them on every side, a flood of sin devouring the nations. Wickedness, great wickedness fills the earth... abominations swell in the holy lands making them desolate. So I shall, with a mighty and swift hand, bring forth My people out of the earth...from every corner, from every tribe and every nation. And every young and innocent child shall be gone from the arms of their unbelieving parents...yea, from their very wombs shall I snatch them away. There will be great wailing and gnashing of teeth.

Behold! I have a Mighty and Strong One, the Right Arm of The Lord, the Prince. He comes as a thief, and shall plunder the strong man's house, receiving back unto Himself all that belongs to Him and He sees of Himself in them. For these are they who know Him; and He, Himself, resides in them and among them.

The Passover has already been killed. Death is gone from My people, all those who have eaten of His flesh and drank His blood. These have passed from judgment into life, and with The Lord shall they abide, even for one week and forever.

The time has come and is already here. Timothy, the time has come. I have come to you, and you have heard My words. And so, now I am come to live fully in you, establishing in you the power of God's spirit, the spirit of truth and prophecy, the spirit of power and miracles.

My beloved watchman, feel the power of The Lord...His hand is upon you. Take what I have given you, and feed the hungry, lift up and free the afflicted and give drink to the desolate. Fill their hearts with these words and even all I shall give you. Your mouth shall become Mine; and your body, My vessel, which shall save many by the power and hand of The Lord, through which you shall do these things in the sight and hearing of men. Then they will cry aloud, saying, 'Indeed, The Lord lives and has sent to us a prophet, for no man in these times has spoken in such a manner, nor have we seen signs and wonders such as these. Surely this is The Lord's doing...hallowed be His name.' So go out, son of men, and fulfill your name, the name I have given you, Timothy...“he who honors God”. Go out and testify in My name, and bring all who will. Bring them to Me, by way of The Son, and by His name, Christ Jesus, both Lord and Savior. Beware...many, who claim to know Me, shall come and blaspheme and spit upon you, and will wish to harm you and drag you through the mud, saying, 'Look at this man. He is unlearned, yet he speaks of things he knows not. Shall he teach us? For we know The Lord and have studied His Word, and served Him our whole lives. Is not this one of the prophets, of such a kind spoken of by The Lord, who was to come speaking and doing miracles, that he might even fool the elect?' Do not listen, Timothy. For all those, who glorify the name of Christ, are chosen of God, and are not false. For you shall pronounce the name of The Lord, and by Him and Him only, shall you say these works are done. The high-minded shall be abased in that day, having all doctrines of men crumble before the feet of The Holy One of Israel, and cracked under the weight of the truth that shall flow from the lips of all His witnesses. Spring is coming, Timothy...winter's last breath is blowing. The time has come for all fig trees to bud and grow, and put forth leaves very quickly and bear much fruit. You have been pruned and replanted in the good soil. Be fruitful, My son. Bear much fruit after the kind I have given you. On the morrow will come that which you have waited for. This is My will for you, and it shall be done.

3/3/06 From Jesus Christ Our Lord and Savior -

A Letter Given to Timothy, For All Those Who Have Ears to Hear

The Lord Calls His Sheep, They Know His Voice...Enter In At His Gate And Become All Of One Fold, Forever Grazing In The Pastures Of God's Graces

To My little flock who resides at My right hand, the firstfruits begotten by the words of My mouth spoken through My prophet, Timothy, gathered by the hand of The Lord, given unto Me as a precious treasure which I shall not lose, but hide in My bosom at the Last Day.

I have died, having given up all to save you...and lo, I live forevermore. Amen. You have welcomed Me, and in so doing are you sanctified by grace as an offering presented before The Father, cleansed in My blood of sprinkling which I have sprinkled upon the nations, of which you also have received into yourselves, believing that, indeed, I AM WHO I AM, though you have not seen Me.

Hence, you shall see Me and not be amazed, because I already live in you. You will see Me and know Me, because My spirit will cause you to remember Me. For I am He by whom you were born twice, from glory into flesh, corrupted and dying...now restored to glory, and soon made incorruptible of the body that never dies, being likened to Him who had breathed into you breath and spirit and that part of Himself which is holy. I am holy, so then you shall be holy, consistently striving to recreate yourself in My image. I know you stumble. It is in your striving, your willingness to please the Almighty God, that your love is true. I am that Mediator between you and The Father, of which part is called Love and Mercy, being sent for His glory and My glory of which The Father has glorified Me, and will yet show My glory in the eyes of all...the power and brilliance of My glory, which is the Majesty of the One True God of all creation.

As is The Father, I AM. He has given everything to The Son, and so The Son shall gather everything to Himself, according to His good pleasure and the judgment of The Father, from which all things came forth and have been purposed and established from the beginning, for The Father is the Beginning and the End. Amen.

And so what is The Father's is also The Son's, who shall fulfill all which has been given Him from the foundation of the world, making a short work to complete and finish all things for God's glory, making an end and a beginning without an ending...an everlasting day in The Lord. Amen. For many, a beginning of new life as it should and will be, a universe of beauty and creation as their dwelling place...living in The Father's house. And to many more, it is with great sorrow, an end, having been cast into everlasting darkness. Even so, amen.

Be not downhearted, My children, but rejoice. The time has come, and is come already, and yet is come, for all vessels of The Father to be restored and placed upon the mantle of His honor, where those who love Him shall be placed...and they shall not be moved or broken ever again. I have provided this place for you, My beloved little ones, for it was first My place, and I now share it with you. You have become My lights amongst a forest of darkness, filled with many trees of abomination. Will you shine bright for Me, beloved?

Arthur, will you endure adversity and share your wisdom and all that I have given to you?

Kathy, wife of Arthur, will you also endure for My name's sake, and stand for what you know is right and fills your heart? Stand together, with your husband, and search the Scriptures daily, together. There will you find strength...My Spirit dwells there.

Craig, beloved servant, I know your heart...it is like Mine. Trust what I have given you, and grow quickly in The Lord, and become My warrior of and for My name.

Trina, beloved wife of Craig, avoid temptation, and keep yourself unspotted from the world. Even now do I hear the world calling you back. Resist the devil, and embrace the Word. Open that which you have begun to close, and I shall fill you up with floods of Living Water! Together, with your husband, read the words of My servants, Paul, James, Peter and John, and now, Timothy. Let the power of My Spirit guide you from temptation and deliver you from evil...two separated, as one again in Me.

Timothy, My servant and messenger, escape the many snares of the devil. They encompass you round about, even from within are you attacked. Grow strong, yea, grow strong. Stand before God in all steadfastness and faith, My rock, immovable, an example of perfect obedience...and I shall yet come unto you once more, and you shall receive the prophet's rewards, which shall bring a multitude to righteousness, coming unto Me, knees bowing down, with you beside them, though the war rages all around. They shall be lifted up into eternal life. Endure, My prophet...endure even unto the end of this age, during which time I will never leave you.

Wife of Timothy, called Beloved, you have done well. Continue in your steadfastness to Me. Yet this I still ask of you: What your husband does, do also. Trust in him and build him up, encourage him and bless him, for you are his staff and closest friend in which he now leans. Give him that support and strength, in love, which he needs. The day is coming quickly when he shall be fully established and no longer lean upon you. In that day, he will be fully established in the Spirit, and another with him also, and all of you will be amazed. Therefore, glorify God.

3/3/06 From Jesus Christ Our Lord and Savior -
A Letter Given to Timothy, For All Those Who Have Ears to Hear

The Lord Calls His Sheep, They Know His Voice...Enter In At His Gate And Become All Of One Fold, Forever Grazing In The Pastures Of God's Graces (cont)

Then shall all shepherds and all sheep, both awake and sleeping, and all lambs, be gathered and taken.

I am coming quickly, with My right hand outstretched, to gather the first harvest and to send My warriors into the battle.
Glorify My name, little children, and give Me perfect praise.
The Day has come...transgression is overcome and nearly finished, where wickedness and evil, death, and dying are banished and thrown into the fire.

Love reigns, and My Kingdom is come... and it shall endure forever, and even forever, and forever shall it be.

Amen and amen.

3/19/06 From God The Father -
A Letter Given to Timothy, For All Those Who Have Ears to Hear

Desolations Are Determined: A Prophecy Against the Northern Lands, the Land of the Rising Sun and the People of Violence

Thus says The Lord God of Israel:

Woe to the kingdoms of this world; woe to the false religions of this world. The atheist shall have it far better than you, when the wrath of the great and dreadful God has come.

Woe to the northern lands. Come and mount up your troops, and take flight. Gather together with those of the rising sun, and make your covenant with the people of violence. Cast your devices and launch all your weapons of war. Come against My chosen people and the land promised to their fathers. Come, says The Lord! Fulfill the evil desire of your hearts. You shall fall! And you shall not be found! says The Lord of Hosts. You will be a valley of death and dry bones, buried in the land you came to destroy, for it shall consume you... food for the birds, a dwelling place of the worm. Come, I say...come and leave your spoil and your rotting flesh. You shall stumble, you shall fall and not be found. By your falling shall the name of The Lord be glorified in every land, even unto the ends of the earth. This is but an awakening, and many will behold it...the mighty and awesome power of The Lord. The earth shall be shaken, the clouds shall burst. You shall be driven mad, and pestilences shall come and drink your blood and cleave to you. Even in a short time shall all those, who come against Me and My people, be driven to the ground by fire and hail and darkness. You shall stumble...you shall fall and not be found, save a sixth part whose hearts I do know. They shall return home and be spared. In your eagerness to spoil shall you become the spoil, and sustain My people even seven days (years).

Behold, My countenance has changed, and My face is against you...My arm is outstretched.
What is determined shall be done, and you shall be left utterly desolate.
Then all will know I AM The Lord!

I have spoken it, and so it shall come to pass, says The Lord of Power and Glory.

3/8/06 From Timothy, Written With Understanding Recieved From the Spirit -
A Letter For Paul L. and For All Those Who Have Ears to Hear

What I Have Written, Stays Written...And What God Has Poured Out Is Poured According To His Will

Paul, our conversations are concluded, because you have become a forgetful hearer, having not truly heard, and because you keep your eyes covered, shutting them to those who are indeed sent, holding onto your arrogance for pride's sake, lest one come and shine light upon the cracks in your man-made armor of self-righteousness, resting upon the foundations of the doctrines of men, men neither hearing, nor having ever heard the voice of The Lord or felt the power of His Spirit upon them. You seek to sanctify and edify your little flock, and condemn and judge all others with man's judgment. I have judged no one. What I write, and have written, stands as true judgment, because those things I have written are NOT my words but what I have heard from God. And it is Him who has commanded me to consume His Word and His Gospel, and it's from Him I receive all of my understanding and teaching...not from men. I have never received any teaching of the Gospel by men. Then the day came when I heard His voice, saying, "Timothy, read My Word, and I will give you understanding." For this reason has He chosen me, and for this reason am I sent: I am a virgin spiritually, having never slept with the "woman" or any of her "daughters". Have I sinned?... Yes, greatly. Am I washed and made worthy by the blood of The Lamb?...Yes. Thanks be to God and His Son, Christ Jesus! Amen.

So yes, God has poured out His Spirit, both then and now, to wake up the sleepers. I have accepted and embraced that which is poured, as have many, and unfortunately many more have both resisted and rejected His calling. What does it profit if The Lord only pours out His Spirit, during His Kingdom, on the redeemed only? What need is there of prophesying if The Lord has already come and is with us? In *Joel 2**, He pours out His Spirit, followed by great signs and wonders, to get the attention of the people as He also did in the apostle, Peter's day (*Acts 2**), but on a much lesser scale. The Lord is trumpeting His coming and sounding His warning. He has poured out His Spirit on all flesh in these last days, calling all to repentance, so they may escape His Day of Judgment (7 years). God has poured out His Spirit, but we must accept it of our own free will. God is not a god of force...power and authority, yes. Because of His love, He wishes for us to have the freedom to choose Him for the right reasons. The time has come, and is come already, for this world to be judged. So God is calling out to everyone in many ways. Yes, He is calling out to people in a personal way, so by their example many will be saved. God has judged and condemned many people, by name, throughout the Bible, in His decrees and Word spoken through His prophets, or have you forgotten?

So it is fulfilled as God had revealed it to me: The Pharisees and Sadducees still exist today, having only changed their names and vesture, and will not give heed to my words, which are not my own, already having been immersed in their own doctrine, refusing to hear those sent to them who they see as beneath them in the faith. This only serves to confirm in me, once again, to whom God has truly sent me: Those who have received of God's Spirit poured out, who go seeking Him, having not been fully ensnared by the workings of men, nor having their palates left bitter by that which never should have been salted, having already been seasoned with the salt of the Spirit. So stop judging by human standards, and judge by right standards, says The Lord. A prophet is never accepted by those, who already claim they know God's will and speak on His behalf, though they have never heard His voice. So I must return to the humble, and those who seek the whole truth, knowing in themselves they are in need of a Savior...and the Letters will always point them to Jesus Christ, as will I.

Again Paul, I remind you, I only write as I hear from God, and you only listen according to man's doctrines and by your own personal knowledge and interpretation. This is why you do not understand and why the Letters do not make sense to you.

Read not the Letters if you so choose. When you return to the Bible, be very careful not to add to, or take away from, its words. What God has written, and what He has not written, are of equal importance. For example, the fourth commandment: We shall keep the seventh day holy...not the first, nor the second, nor the day of our choosing, but exactly how God has written it. No work for us, nor our family, nor our servants or guests, nor even our animals, unless that work is to do good on the Sabbath as Jesus has taught us. He is The Lord and may add to, or take away, to give us understanding...we may not. This would be dangerous and arrogant. God is specific, so it should be easy to obey, yet we rationalize and listen to the churches. What if we applied this same rationale to "Thou shalt not kill", saying, 'It's alright to kill the bad people, and not the good'. Again, Jesus put this to rest when He said, "Love your enemy".

Even so, I know that God judges everyone by what is in their hearts, and not by their errors, loving and forgiving all those who seek to please Him by humbling themselves, confessing their sins, accepting His Son, and proving their love by their obedience.

Paul, know this: The Letters stand exactly as they are written, and by whom I claim they are written, and He stands by me...both going before me and residing in me, and remaining always my Rear Guard.

In Jesus Christ, only, is our salvation.

Your brother in Christ,

Timothy

[Ezekiel 33:33*]

What I Have Written, Stays Written... And What God Has Poured Out Is Poured According To His Will (cont)

Again, God has poured out His Spirit on those who believed in Him in the apostles' day, even to our day as we know from the New Testament, and is now pouring His Spirit on all people (believer and non-believer alike) as a call to repentance, because the end of this age is upon us and the return of Christ is very near. Afterward, will we be fully immersed in spirit and knowledge of The Lord as in Isaiah 11:9*. In that Day, we will all be taught by God (Isaiah 54:13*), and before we call, He will answer us while we are still speaking (Isaiah 65:24*). "No longer will a man teach his neighbor, saying, 'Know The Lord,' because they will all know Me, from the least of them to the greatest", declares The Lord (Jeremiah 31:34***).

Therefore, you have exalted yourself, Paul, and your brethren, saying all shall be taught by you and your "elect" group. All those, who exalt themselves, shall be abased; and all those, who would be first, shall be last, says The Lord.

Joel 2:28-32 NIV

(28) And afterward, I will pour out My Spirit on all people. Your sons and daughters will prophesy, your old men will dream dreams, your young men will see visions. (29) Even on My servants, both men and women, I will pour out My Spirit in those days. (30) I will show wonders in the heavens and on the earth, blood and fire and billows of smoke. (31) The sun will be turned to darkness and the moon to blood...before the coming of the great and dreadful day of The Lord. (32) And everyone who calls on the name of The Lord will be saved; for on mount Zion and in Jerusalem there will be deliverance, as The Lord has said, among the survivors whom The Lord calls.

Acts 2:17-21 NIV

(17) In the last days, God says, I will pour out My Spirit on all people. Your sons and daughters will prophesy, your young men will see visions, your old men will dream dreams. (18) Even on My servants, both men and women, I will pour out My Spirit in those days, and they will prophesy. (19) I will show wonders in the heavens above and signs on the earth below, blood and fire and billows of smoke. (20) The sun will be turned to darkness and the moon to blood...before the coming of the great and glorious day of The Lord. (21) And everyone who calls on the name of The Lord will be saved.

Ezekiel 33:33 NIV

When all this comes true - and it surely will - then they will know that a prophet has been among them.

Isaiah 11:9 NIV

They will neither harm nor destroy on all My holy mountain, for the earth will be full of the knowledge of The Lord as the waters cover the sea.

Isaiah 54:13 NIV

All your sons will be taught by The Lord, and great will be your children's peace.

John 6:45 NIV

It is written in the Prophets: 'They will all be taught by God.' Everyone who listens to The Father and learns from Him comes to Me. ~ Jesus

Isaiah 65:24 NIV

Before they call I will answer; while they are still speaking I will hear.

Jeremiah 31:34 NIV

No longer will a man teach his neighbor, saying, 'Know The Lord,' because they will all know Me, from the least of them to the greatest, declares The Lord.

3/10/06 A Conversation With Our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ -
For Timothy and The Lord's little flock...

His Branches Grafted In, Budding Beautifully from the Vine

[Timothy] Have I failed you by my stumblings?

[Jesus Christ] No, Timothy, this shall you do and continue in all that I have asked of you. These are mere ruts in the road of your obedience, but ruts they remain. Continue on, gain the line, and continue upon the straight path. All have sinned and stumble, yet you have not given up. Turn to Me and pray, when you are weak. Overwhelm your adversary with good, and continue in My service and faith, and he shall fl ee from you. Give Me these thirty days once more, but not as thirty, but one; and then tomorrow, one, and so on ... one day, each day give to Me.

I have not left you... Do not leave Me. For the devil goes about like a roaring lion, seeking whom he may devour, in an effort to devour them by that which is weak and most vulnerable in them, forever trying to sway them from the path of the redeemed and faithful. Did you think by your stumblings you would lose what I have given you? Is your faith in any way shaken?

[Timothy] No, Lord. I love you, and believe in you more than ever.

[Jesus Christ] This is good. Hold onto that which is right, and turn from sin. Have I not forgiven all of your sins, or just those of your years past? What of your sins of tomorrow? Assuredly, I say to you, I have forgiven them. For all who believe in The Son of God are forgiven, all those who seek forgiveness by repentance in My name.

In your striving to overcome is your love for Me shown through your obedience. I have not said perfect obedience shall save you. Rather, that which is in your heart, and that which you proclaim in faith, believing in God's only Son, this shall save you from the day of wrath... not perfect obedience. Obedience demonstrates love. What is in your heart is how I know you, and you, Me. Do your best, Timothy... try harder. Use your stumblings to build strength against the world and the ever-present tempter. You are at war with that which you can not see. There is also another war waged all around you that you can not see, which is waged in My name, to protect all those given to Me, so that I might not lose even one lamb.

Timothy, all stumble... all, Timothy. No matter who they are or have been... bond or free, king or servant, and yes, apostle or prophet. There is none righteous... no, not one... save The Son of man, who came from The Father, having the righteousness of The Father in Himself.

So pick up yourself, shake off all the dirt from your garments, apply ointment to your bruises, and begin again in Me. Though sin seems to be ever-present upon you, I have separated it from you... Sin is no longer a part of you. It is mere illusion, a temptation accepted or rejected, according to the desires of men who fall into the temptation of the world and the evil one...

I have abolished sin, having put it under My feet...

And will soon wipe it completely from the world, bringing in everlasting righteousness, forever and ever.

Then shall My lambs become My sheep, no longer tempted...

But completely established in life, which has no end...

Having shed the corruptible, putting on the incorruptible.

3/10/06 A Conversation With Our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ -
For Timothy and The Lord's little flock...

*Evil is cast into the fire,
And sin and temptation passes away in vapors of smoke.*

*I have overcome the world,
And shall shortly overcome all evil and wickedness, so you won't have to.*

*Yours to overcome is that which is inside you, where I am also,
Giving you strength and lifting you up each and every time you fall.*

Beloved, behold...

I am with you, even unto the end of this age.

Timothy, take what I have given you, and cast My seeds asunder in every region of your reach, and I shall water them and cause them to grow in Me. Yea, a great multitude shall embrace Me, through that which has been placed in your hand. We have only just begun. The day is coming, and coming quickly, when you shall become a great prophet of The Lord's Day. Take what I have given you and use it well, and as I command you, and you shall be given more, even that which surpasses the understanding of the wise and the simple alike...

*They shall be healed...
Even of all those who come seeking to be well.*

*Then shall they know, I AM The Lord,
And there is none like Me.*

*The angels shout:
Hallelujah, hallelujah,
to He who sits on the throne and to The Lamb, for the time has come to take your mighty power and reign!*

3/11/06 From Jesus Christ Our Lord and Savior -
A Letter Given to Timothy, For All Parents and For All Those Who Have Ears to Hear
As You Have Received, So Must You Give

This is what The Lord says, regarding the faith of those who wish to remain in the body of Christ, and fulfill My purpose, and obey My commands:

Parents in Christ, as you have received of The Lord, so you shall share all that you have received...with your spouse first, then with those given you of The Lord. As they are your children, they are first My children given you under your care. I am The Lord, so then you are also My children. You as parents, who are now My sons and daughters, have become My shepherds shepherding those lambs I have given you. Know this, you are also the messenger, having received the message brought to you by another who is your shepherd. You have received My message, and believed, and I have sanctified you by giving you that part of Me which now lives in you. So then, as I have sanctified you, you must sanctify your own children in My name. They are Mine, and I have given them to you; as you are The Father's and He has given you to Me.

Where are you? And how is your house?...It is in disarray, letting those who abide there chase after the world. Do you not know the world is condemned, and all who live in the world are condemned also? One shall lead, or not lead, others into faith, according to how they have first kept their own house. If one can not manage his own house, then how can one manage even one flock, or one lamb, in the church of Christ?

Love one another is My commandment to you. And to love your family is to do everything to save them, even unto the sacrifice of one's self...this is true love.

Do you not know, love of the world leads to death? For every person left behind shall suffer wrath, every one... be it the wrath of God, out of unbelief and the possession of sin, denying The Son's sacrifice; or wrath because of their acceptance of God and His only begotten Son's sacrifice for the forgiveness of sin, falling under the wrath of the evil one and his servant, left in a world that now hates you.

I have saved you with a firm and loving hand, as any father would do when their children have gone astray and are in danger. Now is the accepted time. Now is the time of action. All those who know the Truth, which saves you from the wrath of God, must share that Truth. If you share it not, and those in your house fall away and continue in sin, assuredly, I say to you, they shall be punished and judged, and their blood I will require of you. If you share My Truth with those in your house, and they still not receive it, they shall suffer, but you have saved yourself. But what joy if you share My Truth, and they receive it. Then in the Day which comes quickly, I will come; and you, together with them, will be lifted up when I receive you to Myself.

Parents, you are already in the forest of drought. It is already burning...you smell the smoke of its burning. Shall you run from the forest, saving yourselves, leaving your children to burn? Or shall you stand defiant against the ruler of this world, and run headlong into the smoke, and save those whom you love who are choking? Trust in God!

Children must obey their parents, and parents you must cause them to obey. There is no quarrel. Would you say to Me, 'Yes Lord, I have heard you, but let me sleep and go my own way, and tomorrow I shall obey'?...Not so, little children, tomorrow is ending...the end is in sight. Yet I hear My people saying, 'Yet a little sleep and a little slumber, a little folding of the hands to sleep'. So shall your destruction come as one who travails, and your want as an armed man, leaving you broken and bruised, drowning in many sorrows. Destruction comes nigh! This world shall be judged! Be taken out of, not taken through...Heaven or hell.

Shall you leave your children as lambs for the slaughter?...The wolves gather. Have you given up because your children will not listen? You did not listen to My calling of you, yet I called to you still, never giving up. Even before you were born, I fought for you, having been slain from the foundation of the world. So again, I ask you, where do you stand? And they of your household, where are they? Your work is not done until all I have given you is returned to Me.

Take heed to yourself, and remember all I have taught you.

I am with you...the strength of your heart, in the words of your mouth, the very water of your tears...My blood is in your veins.
What I have shed, you have drank and is now in you.

I now ask you to share it with those you love, and even with all you meet... this is My will for all parts of My body.

Take up your cross, and follow Me.

Inheritance

[Jesus Christ] Timothy, as I have spoken, so it shall come to pass. Hence, in seven days less, it will happen, and it shall be given to you in accordance with My will and your new faith. Though you do not fully believe, it remains your desire of your heart, which is true and is in line with My will for you. Let it be unto you as you have prayed, even more so. Believe, My child, and come into the knowledge of The Lord and of the great and mighty works He shall soon accomplish in you, and signs and wonders beyond imagining in the world, in the sight of all men who dwell upon the earth.

Therefore, resist the devil and trust in Me. Rejoice and give thanks, not for yourselves, but for those things I will accomplish by you, rejoicing and giving thanks for all those who come running to The Lord, having not loved their lives in this world even unto death, who will receive life anew in My Kingdom to come.

Blessed among men are you, Timothy, and among women are you, Beloved. For you shall both know the power of The Lord, and hear His voice, and feel His hands upon you. Behold the prophets of the Great Day of The Lord God Almighty... Let all mighty and terrible men flee at your presence, My presence in you.

Timothy, gather together My sheep and lambs; bind together all the mature wheat and the tares. The Lord comes nigh, to gather and reap, and burn the residue. You are the workers in the field, and you shall be paid in accordance with one full day's wages; even after seven days shall you receive a reward. Witness for My name, trumpet My coming, proclaim the Truth in all the earth, proclaim loudly before Me and your God, the Only One True God of the universe and all therein, creation's Creator. Amen.

Rejoice, My people...

*You shall behold the Author, who shall be the Finisher, before your very eyes.
Blessed be your eyes, blessed be your ears... You have both seen and heard.
And you will both behold and witness the great brilliance and majesty of The Lord, and hear the power and judgment of His Word!
The Day is far spent, and the Day of Rest is at the door.*

Father, I have done the work You have sent Me to do, and I am returning to complete all You have ordained from the beginning...

Bring glory to Your name!

*[God The Father] Beloved Son, I have glorified it and will do so again!
Even every eye shall behold the glory of The Lord wrought in You, who I have glorified by My name, which I gave You.*

*By You, My Son, shall We Two be glorified as One in all the earth, forever abiding in the hearts of men...
Both in them and with them, forever and ever.*

For I shall be their God, and they shall be My people, and from their Shepherd shall they never depart again, for they shall be forever where You are, as You have asked of Me.

*I have given them to You, and they have received My message...
Thus You are their Inheritance, and they Yours, for in You am I well pleased.*

Consummation

Thus says The Lord: Break My commandments, just one, and you transgress the Law! Ignore My commandments, and you transgress the Law! Change My commandments, you blaspheme the Spirit, you shall surely die! Woe to you, oh churches of men...you are deceived by the founders and your forefathers, who were deceived by the devil, even satan. Repent, and return to My Sabbaths, and forsake all of man's holidays and false worshipping, and I may yet have mercy on you, and hide you from the great and terrible day of God's wrath that shall come upon the whole world!

Thus says The Lord of Hosts, the God of your fathers, the God of Israel: My anger is aroused and shall not be quenched, until not one fenced city stands, and all tall towers are torn down and shaken to dust. So shall I turn My hand against the earth, and smite every bird and beast and every crawling thing and every fish in the sea, even every creature of the seas, until every blade of grass is burned up, and every tree has been stricken and bears neither leaf nor fruit.

Thus says The Lord: My anger is still not turned away. My judgment reigns, a punishment for the wicked and a sore to the evil one and his servant and his prophet. Lo, it shall be accomplished. The earth is forsaken and utterly left desolate in ruins.

Thus says The Holy One, the Almighty: Gather together, oh children of the man of perdition, who bear the number of his name, gather against My Holy Mountain.

Thus says The Lord of Glory: Look up, all you of the walking dead. Behold the glory of God wrought in His Mighty and Strong One, The Holy One of Israel. Meet your end...you are blotted out and consumed by His glory, and cut asunder by the sword of His mouth...you are accursed. Let your bodies consume away, your eyes in their sockets. Your flesh shall melt and slide from your bones...a feast for the birds. Thus is the inheritance and consummation of wickedness: Consumption of flesh, body and spirit, in the presence of the Righteous One who shall accomplish it. Then all the earth shall know I am The Lord, and The Son, called Christ and Jesus, is the King forever and ever. Amen and amen.

Behold, a new day!...The seventh, even one thousand years. All these kingdoms have become the kingdoms of My Christ. All shall fall down and worship Him, the King of Glory, your Shepherd, your Father, your Savior, The Risen One, the Deliverer from sin and wickedness.

Thus says The Lord God of all Creation: The earth is Your footstool, My Son, in whom I am well pleased. Take Your throne and place the rod in Your hand, and rule...even over all dominions, Heaven and earth.

Praise your King and give Him glory, for He is the Power and Glory of My right hand...
the same as I AM.

[Timothy] Oh, I will sing praises to The Lord, my Refuge, my Sanctuary, my Beloved, the beating of my heart, my Father and Creator, my Friend. Blessed be the name of The Lord and The Lamb, forever and ever! My heart bursts inside me in the presence of The Lord, who I love with my whole heart and my whole spirit...even unto death do I love Him. For He consumes my soul and I can not stand, nor can I find respite, neither do I desire it. I praise your Holy name, my God and my Lord Jesus, forever and ever, for You are The Holy One who died for me, so that I might be delivered from death and return to the Garden that You had prepared for me from the beginning. Amen.

4/3/06 From God The Father -

A Letter Given To Timothy, For All Those Who Have Ears to Hear

Prophecy Against the Great Nation, Ishmael (Islam)

Behold, The Lord is high and lifted up. The Lord has seen the travail of His people, and remembered the sins and blasphemy of the wicked one and those who do follow after him, giving heed to his lies and subtle deceptions. Even five times per day do they bow down and praise Me by the words of him who I have cast out.

Thus says The Lord: The one, who shall stomp upon the Holy Covenant, is come, and shall come and make peace with you... but there shall be no peace.

Thus says The Lord God: My face is turned against you, and My arm shall be outstretched. Even on pins and needles, nails, and broken glass shall you walk, tearing the flesh of your feet, leaving trails in blood on your streets, the pain of which shall not cease. Neither shall you find respite, for this is what The Lord has decreed and shall be done. You have trodden under foot My commandments, persecuted My people and killed My flock beloved of the Shepherd. You are the flock given up to the slaughter!

Thus says The Lord: I shall paint the hills, even every mountain in My lands, with the blood of your fathers and sons. Behold, The Lord is against you, oh people of violence! How long shall you corrupt My Word? How long shall you deny Me and My Son, Christ, The Lord? You shall surely die, and your corpses shall lie in the streets of your abominations. You shall fall down, even in the midst of your sanctuaries, your abominable temples... these shall crumble and turn to dust, before the wrath of The Lord!

Thus says The Lord: My anger is still not turned away! Oh great nation, descendants and adopted sons of Ishmael, so it is fulfilled and will come to pass. Hence in less than one week's time (seven years), you shall be against every man, and every man shall be against you.

Thus says The Lord of Glory: I am come in My vengeance, and I shall destroy even all your strongholds. I shall dismember and burn them with fire. I shall dry up your lands and smite your peoples. A wasteland of sorrows shall be your meat, and suffering shall be your nourishment, for as you have done unto those who love Me, and the name of My Son, The Holy One of Israel, so shall you receive double of the wrath of The Lord that has come. Oh deceived nation, YOU SHALL NOT CHANGE, OR ADD TO, THE WORDS OF The Lord MOST HIGH, NOR DENY HIS NAME, THE NAME HE HAS GIVEN HIS SON, EVEN CHRIST! You are not alone in your desolations... even your enemy, the church in the midst of the seven hills, shall join you.

Thus says The Lord: Your whoredoms and murders are stacked one upon another throughout the generations, and so The Lord has declared your end. For those religions, those vain religions of this world who worship false gods and idols, shall have it far better than you when the day of God's wrath is revealed. Yea, even the heathen shall be spared, when he calls upon the name of The Lord in that day. And the name, by which he shall call unto Me, is CHRIST JESUS THE LORD, for there is no other name upon earth or in Heaven by which you must be saved, than by the King's alone.

For this is what The Lord says: As am I, so is The Christ, even Jesus. As I am known of Him, so is He known of Me. Whatsoever is done is done by Him. Whatsoever I decree, as sanctified, is sanctified by Him. Whatsoever is condemned shall be destroyed by Him. Whatsoever is corrupted is made incorruptible by Him. What was once dead has life because of Him.

Thus says The Lord of Glory: I have glorified the name Christ Jesus, The Lord of Heaven and earth, and I shall do so again, even forever and ever! Amen. I see your hearts, oh sons of iniquity. Your father was cast out of the camp of Abraham, and so shall your presence be cast out of My lands... even from the earth, for it shall consume you.

Listen to what The Lord says: Repent, and I may yet find a place for you, for I am The Father of all and know who it is that has corrupted your hearts and filled them with hate. He is your true adversary, the devil, who has been cast down and goes about like a roaring lion, seeking whom he might devour. And devour you he will by your own evil desires, which he has used to turn you against your God, of whom you say you love and worship. Yet you do not know Me, nor will I hear your prayers, for you pray to Me by the name of a man who is not My prophet, nor have I spoken to him.

Hear what The Lord requires, and listen, and so do, and you will surely live and not die.

Thus says The Lord: All have sinned. There is none righteous... no, not one. Therefore, from the beginning The Lord your God has required sacrifice for sin and blood for atonement. Yet mankind would not be saved by the blood of rams and goats, nor lambs of the first year, though they have no blemish. Only the pure blood of a man, without sin, sent from God, could save mankind from themselves. Behold The Lamb of God, who was beaten and bruised, scourged and mocked and hung upon the tree, even the cross.

Thus says The Lord: ONLY GOD MAY FORGIVE SINS! And I have forgotten them, though they be great in number, even beyond the number of the stars. Yet The Lord your God has forgiven them in One Man, who bore them in His own body though He has no part in sin of Himself, being The Son of Man who is as The Father, God in the flesh, Immanu El on earth.

Hear the word of The Lord: Those under My wrath, who shall suffer My vengeance, cry out His name and be spared... JESUS CHRIST, THE LORD, IS HIS NAME! Deny Him, and you are lost and given up to judgment and death... the inheritance of the wicked and the followers of satan and his servant.

The Lord is wrathful, The Lord is full of vengeance, yet His mercies are bountiful... if you, My children, would accept them.

The Book of Life is written, and is held in The Christ's right hand.
He has the power to blot you from its pages and your part in life...
embrace the Master, and He shall embrace you.
He is your Carpenter and Father.
He loves His children with a love unfathomable.

Come, gather together in His name, and He will be amongst you...
and take you to be where I am.

A Letter Given to Timothy, For Kathy and For All Those Who Have Ears to Hear Refinement

My child, why do you beseech The Lord over things of which you know? Rather, ask of your God what is My will for you and what has the Teacher shown you. You shall set aside every Sabbath Day, even every Saturday, the seventh day of each week, for The Lord, and cleave to those which He has taken out of the world, though they yet wait for Me in the world. Take heed to yourself, and follow My Law and My teaching. Do you not know, when you are among My chosen, these who are fully converted in heart, I AM THERE, in your very midst, seated at the table beside you? Yea, My hands are upon your son, Timothy...he speaks for Me. His commitment is nearly accomplished. When he is proven by works and faith, all shall be beholden to you, and he will no longer behold you. You shall pass from his sight and be carried away, even unto the bosom of The Holy One.

So then, Kathleen, keep My Sabbath, and make it an example to your kindred by your absence and because of your testimony. By your works is your testimony established...do not waver. Cleave to those who are Mine, as you are Mine...this is where love is shared, in the presence of Him who I sent to you for love's sake.

Your prayers have been answered in your children's children, for Craig has obeyed without hesitation, and will soon stand up for Me...My witness and lamp, standing for Him who walks among you in Spirit and Truth, being that same Truth Absolute. Great and wonderful things are coming within your kindred and family...dreadful and terrible things for the world and those turned in heart against Me. Even so, rejoice in the wonderful works of The Lord and for the trials that are coming, for you shall be refined as in the furnace...pure...passing from judgement into life.

Therefore, pray for the lost and hard of heart, and a double portion for the special offering who will go into battle, that they not stumble, for the enemy is at the door. Behold, even a Greater One has already come in and will make a quick end...everlasting righteousness will reign, evil blotted out, and the bruised and broken warriors of the Word, exalted. Yea, behold the prophets of the Great Day, trumpeters of His coming. Their words shall be as fire, afflicting great harm on the wicked and healing the hearts of the penitent. They will be My mighty and strong ones. I will be their Helper. I, even I, will be with them and in them, the Words of their mouths and the strength of their hand and the power of their signs, for this is but a small thing for The Lord.

Ask of Me and I shall answer.

I AM WHO I AM, AND THERE IS NONE LIKE ME!...
Creator of all the heavens and the earth.

Amen.

3/29/06 From God The Father -

A Letter Given to Timothy, For All Those Who Have Ears to Hear

The Heavens and the Earth Shall Pass Away, Recreated Anew. The Law Stands Forever, Unchanged and Unchangeable. Neither Has God Blessed Any Other Day, the Seventh Has He Blessed...Keep It Holy.

Thus says The Lord, your God: You shall not desecrate My Sabbaths, nor the seventh day of the week, which I have commanded you!

Thus says The Lord: As I had spoken to Moses, so shall it be done. As I had spoken it before the congregation, so shall it be done. Yea, as the blowing of the great trumpet, with lightning and thunderings, had I spoken it upon Mount Sinai. In the presence of the tribes of Israel, and before the holy angels, did I trumpet My Law. Yea, The Lord has written with His own hand and given it to His people. Behold! I, even I, have written it upon their hearts by the power of My Spirit. The Son of Man came to redeem you from your transgression, of that burned into the stone of the everlasting covenant by which man shall live, of which none have kept and shall surely die.

Yet a New Covenant I have sent to you in Christ Jesus, to save you from the penalty of that which you have forsaken. Has, then, your Christ died whereby the Law has also died?...Not so! You shall live because of Him, and by that which He upholds and has magnified in Himself, being the only One who is without sin, having kept every tittle of the Law, for it is written of that which The Lord Christ had spoken, "It is easier for heaven and earth to pass away, than one tittle of the Law to fail", for the Spirit of the Law is shown in His vesture...He, being the same One who taught you the Law anew, by His example and by His word and deeds, for the Law is fulfilled in Christ...Him being The Lord of the Law, and The Lord also of the Sabbath. If He, then, is The Lord of the Sabbath, having obeyed every command of The Father, why do you not follow Him? You say you follow Him and honor Me. Verily I say to you, you shall all be found liars in the Day of Reckoning, for every word spoken of God, and by His Son, stand forever, without any variableness or shadow of turning.

Oh church of adulteries, how We mourn for you...you have been judged and shall be left utterly desolate in the Day of The Lord's wrath. You say you speak for Me, and have Christ's authority...you have trampled upon the grave of the Resurrected One, making His sacrifice of non-effect. Woe to those who blaspheme the Spirit! Your whoredoms are piled to Heaven. Every Law you have broken, and yet still do you embrace the sins I hate. In all you do have you crucified The Son of Salvation, again and again, denying His name by all your deeds you call mighty and true. Oh unholy church of men, mother of all fornications and lies, your destruction comes nigh. You have become Egypt....Let My people go! Stop desecrating My Sabbaths. Cease from your heresies. Hold your tongue from your blasphemies! And repent!...And I may yet have mercy on you.

Shabbat (Saturday) is the seventh day, and the Sabbath which I have ordained from the beginning.

The Holy One comes quickly and will take from you His own...He shall snatch them from your very breast. No more shall My children receive nourishment from you. No more shall they sit in your deceptions. The light is taken from you...you are left alone, estranged by your false doctrines. Your fate lies with him who is coming, who shall lead many into perdition and death...you shall bear him a son, a man who bears the number of his name, his prophet.

You will not be alone when desolations come. You and your enemy, Ishmael (Islam), shall be destroyed along with the father that bore you both, the father of lies.

Even so, it shall be done.

The Mighty and Strong One shall come and then return in His glory... and anyone, who calls on the name of The Lord, shall be saved.

The Truth Absolute

Thus says The Lord God of Israel, God of Heaven and earth, of all that is seen and unseen, known and unknown, The God of All, The Only One True God: All else is fantasy and corruption and vexation of spirit, a leading away from the Truth, a valley of dead and dry bones, darkness and blackness, a void of lifeless nothingness...thus is the second death, of which the redeemed in Christ need not fear. These have passed from death into life, despair into joy, and judgment into salvation...taken from the earth to their rightful places I have prepared for them, paid for in blood by The Lamb.

Thus says your Father who is in Heaven: Come to Me, My beloved little ones, sons and daughters of God by Christ, The Holy One. Come into My joy, and be lifted up. Do not look back...judgment and abomination dwell there...Sodom and Gomorrah.

Thus says The Christ, The Son of The Most Holy God, The Father: As I am also your Father, listen to My words and have understanding. As I have spoken to My friends of long since past, so do I speak unto you. The time has come, and is come, and is come already, when all signs and wonders shall be fulfilled. Your redemption from this world draws nigh. I am The Christ and Jesus of your hearts, who has rebuilt the temple of God in you, for it was thrown down and I have restored it. Even will I restore it again in a greater glory...glorified, seated at the right hand of your Lord and your God. I remain your Teacher and will always be your Friend...trust in Me. Soon, I will no longer teach you...the mystery of God revealed. Then shall we walk together in the Kingdom of God...you in Me, I in you. In that Day, you will know Me as I know you. Rejoice, the time of great sorrows is come and is nearly finished. No more sorrows, no more pain, no more tears or death...rebirth...a time of rejoicing that shall never end.

Thus says The Lord your God: Great patience is called of My saints. And steadfast patience and rock-hard faith will be required of the latter-days saints of The Lord's Day, for great and terrible things are coming during these days, and greater still to come during the Last Week. Even now have come evil and damnable heresies...abominations, blasphemies and lies fed to the masses. Choose starvation, accept only the manna from Heaven...forsake all worldly food. The world is awash in poison and bitter doctrine...so begins the final deception of the evil one thrown down, who goes out to devour the whole world.

This is what The Lord, The Risen One, says: Dearly beloved, believe not the lies, nor fear, nor doubt...I am with you.

Remember My words:

One God...One Son, the only Way to The Father...

One Truth...One Word...One Messiah...

One Spirit...One Food...One Bread and One Drink...

One Body...

Of which I AM ALL... the ALL in ALL.

Amen.

4/14/06 From God The Father and Our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ -
A Letter Given to Timothy, For All Those Who Have Ears to Hear
The Vineyard

[God] Behold the Maker of Heaven and earth! I am the Majesty from on high!

[Timothy] Praise and give thanks to The Lord God Almighty! Praise Him with your whole heart! The time has come for You to reign, oh Lord... the time has come. Thanks be to God in Heaven. The burden is lifted, the consummation is coming quickly.

[God] Thus says The Lord your God: The time has come. The time is here. Hear the voice of The Lord God Almighty... the One who is, and was, and is to come. I have sent My messengers before My face. Behold The Holy One of Israel, the Lion of the tribe of Judah. Reap, oh Son of David! Reap, and judge the earth, for the harvest is ripe and ready for reaping. Take Your throne, Son of the Most High... sit on the throne of David, the throne of Your glory.

[Jesus] Oh Father, You are Holy. You have begotten Me; and I am in You, and You are in Me. I became flesh... Immanu El. From the womb of the virgin had You sent Me, to save the afflicted of sin. I have done all You have asked of Me, Father. Even to death did I walk in obedience, and from death did I arise and ascend to Your right hand. Now I return... behold, I am coming quickly!

Thus says The Lord of Glory: I am come, and have come already, and will yet come and return in My glory. Hear the words of The Holy One sent from God, The Lamb of God. I am coming, and will come, to devour the prey, and none shall escape My glory. Behold The Lamb turned roaring Lion. My countenance is changed... My face is against the wicked. I died so you may live. You choose death and stomp upon your forgiveness, and afflict My sheep. You shall be the afflicted... even twenty-one judgments shall I send upon you. I see your hearts, the black hearts inside you, and that which is engraved upon your right hands and foreheads. You have forsaken Me, and so I am coming quickly to make of you a short work. You would not kiss The Son as part of the holy convocation. You have covered Me in the kisses of Judas. I say to you - woe to any man who has betrayed My love. So The Father, The Lord your God of whom you shake your fists and shout obscenities, has pronounced your sentence... the death of which you shall not awaken from.

[God] Thus says The Lord God of Power and Glory: Son of Man, the vineyard is Your footstool... the people, Your grapes. Tread upon them in the winepress of My fury. Break down the wall, tear out the hedge, destroy the briars and thorns... even trample it to dust beneath Your feet, until nothing remains.

[God] Thus says The Lord: The vineyard, I planted, has produced wild grapes, the vines of which have reached unto the ends of the earth. I had sent to them The Messiah, the Sower of the seeds of salvation. They have treated them as bitter herbs and cast them asunder, throwing them into the depths of the sea so none might find them, lest even one seed grow in them, saying, 'I answer to no one, nor any god. I am who I am. I go my own way.'

Thus says The Lord to the haughty and high-minded: You shall be brought very low, even to the depths of hell which is the grave! Who shall save you from the wrath of God in that day? Who, oh insolent children, who?... JESUS The Christ, BOTH LORD AND SAVIOR, is the name by which you must be saved! I have spoken it, and shall say it again - Kiss The Son, lest you, and all you have known, come to naught when His anger is kindled but a little. Even so, little ones, The Lord is not without mercy. I wish that all come to repentance and none are lost. My will is that you come to know My love, the love which is fulfilled in Christ Jesus, The Lord.

[Jesus] Thus says The Christ, The Redeemer: Come to Me... embrace all I have done. Live unto Me, and I shall come live in you, and return quickly to receive you to Myself, plucking you from the furnace which shall rage even seven times hotter than in all times past. To those who remain, though you be in the midst of the fiery furnace, I have not forsaken you. Turn to Me, and I shall abide with you in the heat of its burning, taking you through unscathed. Even the smoke of its burning shall not be found at all in your vesture. Beware, little children, the furnace is the Last Week, the Judgment of God, the Consummation... many shall perish in those days. None, who call on My name, shall suffer judgment, yet you will suffer at the hands of the evil one and his servant for a time, times and the dividing of time. Be not downhearted, to die is gain in those days... you shall be with God in an instant, in a twinkling of an eye. You shall behold Him. In those days, which will be shortened lest no flesh be saved, you shall behold the angels of Heaven ascending and descending upon The Son of Man.

I am the Stairway...
The Way, The Truth and The Life,
your Helper, your Salvation from sorrows.

[Timothy] Though the weight of many sorrows is upon me, I will praise You in the storm. I will praise the name of glory. I will praise the name of love and pure righteousness... the One who holds my hand, and wipes away my tears, and replaces them with unshakable tears of joy.

Oh Lord and my God, You are The Holy One, both Maker and Savior of men. Amen.

4/7/06 From Jesus Christ Our Lord and Savior -
A Letter Given To Timothy, For All Those Who Have Ears to Hear

Heresy

Question asked by Timothy: Lord, what do you say about the so-called gospels of Thomas, Judas and Mary?

Answer from Jesus Christ Our Lord and Savior:

Timothy, if you read them, your spirit will cry false. For when the day comes that you come to live with these three in the Kingdom, My friends, you may ask them, and their testimony will be as that of the twelve, even as Luke and Mark. For these heresies are written by the devil and his apostates, imposters, who none shall find in the Kingdom, their names blotted from My book called Life. For whosoever blasphemes the Holy Spirit of God, for evil's purposes, shall not find forgiveness in the Day of Reckoning. Their inheritance is in the lake of fire...the second death. By the power of Satan's forethought and planning were these gospels hidden, as it were, an ace in the pocket of the deceiver waiting to be played at his proper time and season, with the hopes to lead those who believe into doubt and destabilize their foundations of faith. For those, who have not believed the Truth, shall also believe the lies, only to the further hardening of their hearts against He who bought them and gave of His life to save them.

Therefore, know and understand. This is a great heresy plotted against your generation. It shall not stand, for those who are wise, and do know their God, shall be steadfast... yea, even a strengthening of their resolve in Me. They shall do exploits, and all, who genuinely seek after Me, shall find Me and shall not be moved...these shall not be found upon the earth in those days.

I am the Master. And the devil, the deceiver lost in his own deceptions, fighting a war already won in the hearts of the redeemed, who are the elect of My heart. All houses built upon the Rock shall stand and be lifted up. Those, built upon the sand of iniquity, apostasy, and all worldly foundations of false truths, shall be swept away in the great torrent of My Father's judgments.

Even so, call on the name of The Lord, though your house be devastated and you stand alone in the desolate lands of sorrow, you shall find joy indeed, for the Truth shall set you free.

And by your testimony shall your life in this world end, and your eternal life begin in an instant when you are lifted up to Heaven...
then following Me upon the clouds with great glory, forever abiding in My presence in the Kingdom of God.

Amen.

*4/11/06 A Prayer to My God and My Savior, From Timothy, Inspired by the Spirit -
For All Those Who Love The Lord with Their Whole Hearts, Nothing Held Back*

My Redeemer Lives

My God, my God, You are The Holy One. My Christ and my Jesus, by Your blood am I washed from sin's raiment, which had clothed me in death. By Your sacrifice have You led me from the dark. A new light has sprung up where there was none before. By Your words and Your teaching, I have begun to unleaven my life, for You have already unleavened my body and my spirit from sin. Even that, which contains the leaven of sin, itself, do I continually cast out. I will obey Your word, oh Lord. Though I stumble, I will strive to obey. I feel Your hand upon me, oh Lord. I offer myself to You, my God and my Lord. Take my will, and make it Yours. You offered Yourself up to suffering and death because of what I have done. I deserve my punishment, yet You bore my sin, even all the sins of those I love. I can not approach Your love, but by any and all means, I shall strive to show You my love and my gratitude. My heart I leave open to You. Mold it, and create me anew in Your image. You are the love of my life, of which I knew not. That place, which was barren inside me, the world could never fill, leaving me broken and void...hard. You fill me with awe, a love I never thought possible...my heart softened. And Your voice, Your words...oh, the beautiful sound of Your voice. You stir my soul, a great burning in my spirit, the love of which I have never known. Why, oh Lord, do You bless me? I have sinned greatly and broken Your commandments, and desecrated Your name and the temple You gave me, yet You never forsook me. What have I done to deserve such mercy, such unfathomable joy in Your presence? You are my God and my Lord Jesus. The sound of Your name, even mentioned in a whisper, brings tears to my cheeks. The pronouncement of Your judgment terrifies my soul, yet I welcome it and feel safe. Help me, oh Lord, help me...I am powerless before Your majesty. You are so utterly beautiful, even when You were covered in blood for my atonement. I can not stand, I fall to my knees...I am so utterly unworthy of Your graces, yet by Your grace have You saved me. I am a broken vessel of great dishonor, yet You have gathered me up. My God, my God, You are The Holy One. None compare...no one, nothing! My beloved Father, I shall wait for You...I shall fight for You. I will run into death's fury...I am only a man, but I know You are with me. I put You to death...You bore my sin in Your body. You were broken and bruised for my transgression, and by Your stripes am I healed, yet I did not ask You. Before I was born, You knew me and died for me, though I had forgotten You. Oh my Lord Jesus, how many tears must I cry? How many times can I say "I love You"?...I shall never cease; with my dying breath, I will proclaim it. If it is Your will I not die, I shall sing of my beloved Lord forever, and even forever and ever. I shall trumpet it to every living creature. Give the command, and show me the way. Fill my soul with Your Spirit, oh my God...take control of my mouth. Speak, oh my God...shout, oh my Lord. Save the afflicted! Make me Your vessel unto honor...glorify Your name! Lift me up from my wickedness; set Your Truth within me, oh my God. I beseech You, oh Lord, destroy me with Your love and words, overcome me with Your presence...I am Your servant. Stomp out temptation in me; cultivate Your Word in me. Let the dew of Heaven cover my shame and wash away all I have done. Set me upright, for I can not raise my head, lest I look upon Your glory and die. My strength is gone from me...in my weakness is Your strength made perfect. Lord, Your grace is sufficient for me. Light the path for my feet, for I am walking into darkness, and I feel the adversary on every side. He bruises me continually. "Help me, oh Lord!" I shout to You, my God. I am but a child...I am lost, and consumed with fear and sadness, when I do not hear Your voice. I am swallowed up in sorrow when I am not in Your presence, for I have heard the Master and felt Your hands upon me. Woe to me, oh Lord, my Savior, I have beheld Your image. Surely my eyes shall go blind, for I have seen the glory of The Lord. I am a man so very unclean, yet You embraced me. The earth has become pale, a wasteland, for I have seen The Lord. Shut my eyes that I never see again. Let me never forget...Your image is burned upon my very soul. Let my ears grow quiet because I have heard the voice of The Lord and Your angels, by ears that have been filled with uncleanness. Yet even now, I hear You comforting me, saying, "What The Lord has cleansed is worthy - call it not unworthy. Rejoice, oh son of men, you have been redeemed from the earth as a special offering. Rejoice, and sound the trumpet, the redemption of the redeemed draws nigh, says The Lord of Hosts, The Redeemer." I have not the words to thank You for what You have accomplished on the cross...I am forever indebted to You. You are my Passover who has brought me from death into life.

Oh my God, oh my God, in the name of Jesus, I say amen...forever amen.
My Redeemer lives!

Stricken

[God] Behold the power and glory of The Lord wrought in His anger. The world is stricken, a corrupt tree, bearing bitter fruit filled with poison. Oh such great wailing in all the earth...the weeping, the wailing of My children and the innocent. You have done this! Oh you men of power and wealth, you people of excess, you have done this! By the hardness of your hearts, you have committed murder and have destroyed the Garden. You shall be stricken and wasted. The earth shall consume you.

Thus says The Lord, the God of Israel: This is My earth, and these are My children. I shall feed them! says The Lord... you shall starve. The afflicted shall inherit wealth beyond imagining. They shall be My sons and daughters...you shall be cast out! says The Lord. I do not know you. There shall be great wailing and gnashing of teeth.

Thus says The Lord God of Creation: All foundations shall crack; all high places shall crumble before the great and awesome power of The Lord, wrought in His Son, the Mighty and Strong One. Your wealth has come to nothing...it shall bury you. Your power is corrupt and shall consume you.

So commands The Lord, your Maker, to the hard-hearted, servants of satan and this world: Kneel before The Lord of Hosts! Kneel before The Risen One! Christ is your salvation in the Day of Wrath. Yet you will forsake Him in the name of another, the imposter and destroyer of flesh. Behold! You shall kneel. You shall kneel as he, whom you have worshipped in vain, shall kneel...before the majesty of Him called the Nazarene. The earth is filled with His glory, and every knee shall bow...on earth, under the earth, and in Heaven. Yea, all shall be brought into subjection before the King. Did you think, oh you wicked, that he, the man of perdition, could save you from the wrath of The Lord pronounced from the beginning?...He is deceived as you are deceived.

Thus says The Lord in His fury: You shall kneel and be destroyed, extinguished in the lake of My burning heart, which both burns with anger and many sorrows for the wicked, who shall be stricken from life, and their existence blotted from the pages of the Book which The Lamb holds.

Thus says The Lord: Do you not know the fury of The Lord has come, and is coming quickly, but greater still is the love and mercy of The Lord which was sent already?...Embrace the Word and the name of The Lord.

Hear the Word of the Only Begotten Son of Glory and God: In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. In the beginning was the Word, of which I AM, the same as God by whom all these worlds are, and were, created. Even you did We create in Our image, vessels and temples of Our spirit. You have desecrated and destroyed all We had given you, by which you have also destroyed yourself. You say, 'God shall not destroy us. We have neither heard nor seen Him. He only exists in the minds of men and in the pages of books.'

Thus says The Christ, the Word of God: You shall surely die! You have sealed your own fates by your evil arrogance and rejection of the Truth. I was sent to redeem and restore you to glory, yet you forbear and cast Me from you as cords about your necks. Do you not understand I have broken all the cords that bind you, and freed you from your chains of imprisonment? Yet you say, 'Cast these cords from us'? Do you not know the power and mercies of God?... I am that power, through which God has shown His mercy. Beaten, mocked, bruised, scourged, nailed to the cross, pierced and buried, stricken by God...only to rise again on the third day, so you would be spared and healed in My blood, shed for your transgressions against God.

Thus says The Lord God, the Only God: My mercies endure forever, for all who partake and accept of My mercies. For these shall live forever, abiding in the light of The Lord, because of My Mercy sent to them. There is none other, nor any other way found by which you may enter into the love and mercy of God. One Son given up for many...one Way to sanctification and life, life without end...for I so loved the world, I gave My only begotten Son, that whosoever believes in Him shall not perish, but have everlasting life.

[Jesus] Listen to what the Stricken One, the One stricken for you, says:

I AM COMING QUICKLY! My reward is with Me.

Behold...I carry the cup of My Father's wrath, of which I must pour out on the nations.

I am The Holy One sent from God...embrace Me now!...

Lest you remain and drink of the bitter waters of The Lord's indignation, which shall fill the entire earth.

Salvation and Redemption have come, and are coming quickly.

Judgement and darkness will reign for seven days (years).

Consummation...

The birth of a new day, even one thousand years...Peace.

Amen.

4/19/06 From God The Father and Our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ -
A Letter Given to Timothy, For All Those Who Have Ears to Hear
Unleavened (Regarding the Feast of Unleavened Bread)

[Jesus] Hear the Word of The Lord, The Risen One, your Redeemer: I had come to you as a man, clothed in the flesh of men, humble, My glory set aside; God become man, living as all have lived in the body, but not as man lives in the spirit...for I am clean, having no sin in My body nor in My spirit, having obeyed every command of The Father...blameless.

[God] Behold The Lamb of God! Without spot or blemish, sent to die for the sins of the world, bearing the full weight of transgression in His own body. My Son, You are and will always be the Risen Lamb of God, whereby You took the leaven of the world, having completely unleavened all men, once, for all time, by Your blood, having been the perfect sacrifice for sin, acceptable to God, whereby men have been reconciled to The Father...they, themselves, becoming, once again, My sons and daughters, free to enter the Garden and My love, from which they shall never again be separated...their new life lived in and for Christ Jesus, The Lord and Savior in whom I am well pleased.

[Jesus] So then, little children, and all who gather in My name where I am also, a holy convocation, have understanding of the plan of the ages and creation, which in the sixth day, the leaven of sin had entered into the garden; and on the seventh, God rested and blessed the seventh day.

As I have come and unleavened men by the cross, so must all those, who live in Me, crucify their lives, taking up their crosses and following after Me each day. For these six days of the feast have you made a physical representation of My command to you. You are forgiven...go out and sin no more. And be then separate from other men and all worldly desires, a strange and peculiar people who remain in My love.

The seventh day is the consummation of the six gone before, the cleansing completed, resting from Our works against temptation and evil. For I am coming quickly, and I, too, shall make a complete end to transgression and sin and all that which leads My children into temptation. First have I unleavened all, who believe in Me, in their bodies...I am your Passover. Now, I am returning to make a complete end of all the leaven that fills the whole world. In seven days (years), I will accomplish it!...the Last Week. Then rest...peace...one thousand years.

Six days, creation...the seventh, rest, holy. Six days since Adam...the seventh, rest, holy. Six days in the week...the seventh, rest, holy. Six days shall you feast...the seventh, rest, holy. Drink and eat in remembrance of Me. Be filled with the glory of The Lord. Amen.

I am The Risen One, who has come to live in you.
By Me shall you overcome, for I had overcome all things from the beginning...
I am the Beginning and the Ending, Alpha and Omega...

All has become new, because of Me and through Me. Amen.

12/30/05 From God The Father -
A Letter Given to Timothy, For All Those Who Have Ears to Hear
This Generation Shall Not Pass Away

All others who have went before, having prophesied of the return of Messiah, have failed...the time was not yet, nor did I speak to them. I have spoken to you and many others. Yea, the time is near...behold, He is at the door.

Timothy, write, and receive understanding. As it was written, there were seven weeks and threescore and two weeks unto Messiah's first coming. So shall there be threescore and two days, and then seven days, going forth after the Restoration Day of My people to their land. After the seven days have been completed, Messiah shall reign.

Behold the generation, who shall see the coming of The Son of Man in His glory. These are they, who shall not pass away before His coming. Blessed are the wise, who wait and watch and see these things come to pass during their generation...they shall be lifted up.

4/21/06 From God The Father and Our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ -
A Letter Given to Timothy, For All Those Who Have Ears to Hear

He is Risen!

[Jesus] Thus says the Everlasting, who would be man, Immanu El, born into the world, of a virgin, the chosen vessel by which the salvation of man comes, as a babe, growing, living as men, yet remaining unspotted from the world and sin, completely blameless... Amen...

Born to die, suffering as no man could endure, the healing of many in the blood of sprinkling, cleansing the unclean forever, death and dying, My Spirit committed to The Father, all things accomplished... the cup of The Father consumed...

Rest, renewal by the tears of mourning, sleep in the lower parts of the earth, the tomb sealed... the grain of wheat, the Holy Seed, has fallen and died, planted in the earth for three days and three nights:

I have given of My life unto death. I completed all The Father has given Me to do. I have the power to lay down My life...

BEHOLD! I have the power to take it up again.

[God] Gabriel, Michael, roll back the stone. Release the Light unto men, for it shakes the earth with a great trembling. Break free, oh Son of Man, break death's hold. My beloved Son, Christ Jesus, Immanu El on earth, come forth! says The Holy One, the God of Israel, the Maker of Heaven and earth.

Behold the Light of the world!... The First Begotten from the dead...
The Firstfruits... The Risen One.

[Jesus] I am the Resurrection and the Life. All those, who believe in Me, shall not die, but live again, for I shall raise them up at the Last Day...

No more tears... no more death... no more pain... for the old order of things has passed away.
All things restored in glory, the glory of everlasting life.

Death destroyed... even sin has been taken away and cast into the void of forgetfulness.

I am Risen! Your Redeemer lives!... Even forever and ever. Amen.

4/28/06 A Letter from Timothy, Inspired by the Spirit -
For All Those Who Have Ears to Hear

Ascension into Grace

Behold, The Lord is high and lifted up, residing always at the right hand of The Father in Heaven, from where He came to us in the flesh to suffer, a righteous man among a valley of thorns, piercing Him unto death for our transgressions, so we might live because of Him. So then, the One from Heaven descended, so He might live to die; so He might rise again, whereby we are also approved of God by Him, so we may also rise at the Last Day, meeting The Lord in the air, taking us to be where He first ascended.

The Lord Jesus Christ has ascended, as it was spoken by the prophets and witnessed by His disciples, in number many, who also went out testifying, so every letter might be established for our justification...wherein if we would believe with our whole heart, in this shall we be saved.

The Lord Christ, our precious Jesus, has ascended on high, having went to prepare a place for those who love Him, having already prepared the way by the cross...so that through Him, we might also ascend and be where He is, forever and ever.

The Lord first descended, then ascended, so that He might descend again and lift us out of affliction the second time. Let us remember, always, the first time wherein He had already saved the afflicted from sin.

Then shall He descend a third time, with the armies of Heaven following Him, even the saints, to make a final end of all powers, principalities and all that lead His people into sin.

As those, who accept Him, are free from sin...so shall He, in whom we find freedom, come and prepare a place on earth as in Heaven, where sin and death and sorrow are no more. Hallelujah! Amen.

Rudolph, I write to you this day as a man moved by the Spirit of God, and what I write this day is according to the understanding received by that same Spirit, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord, with the hopes that you might come into the fullness of God's truth, which is manifest through the person of Christ who became man, "God with us", called from the womb of the virgin, being called of God, Himself, Immanu El, who also was named among men by the name above all names, at which being spoken of every knee shall bow, even all those on the earth, under the earth and those in Heaven... For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, whose name God gave Him, Jesus, The Christ. And Jesus, of Himself, thought it not robbery to make Himself equal with God, being, Himself, God in the flesh, as God had spoken it in all the Holy Scriptures...even to John, who wrote: "In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. The Same was in the beginning with God. All things were made by Him, and without Him was not anything made that was made. And the Word was made flesh and dwelt among us, (and we beheld His glory, the glory as of the Only Begotten of The Father) full of grace and truth."

Rudolph, you say you are a witness of the Truth, even a witness of God. I ask you, how can you witness for God, if you do not give glory and witness of the One who God glorified and gave His own witness, by His own voice, saying, "This is My beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased. Hear ye Him"? I tell you, because of man's doctrine in you, you have read His words and studied Jesus' witness of Himself, neither hearing nor seeing, having denied the power of Jesus' words, which are the Truth Absolute. Jesus, Himself, said, "The Father is in Me, and I in He. The Father and I are One." Yet you deny Him. Even now you deny Him, saying, 'I do not deny Him.' To not accept Jesus, as He really is, is to deny Him. Even now this day, God has witnessed to you through men, yet you cover your ears because of your pride and arrogance, saying inside yourself, 'I know God and His will'. How do you know? Has God spoken to you? Does Christ dwell in your heart? You think you know because men have told you, and you have entered into an agreement with a church of men, which does not bear the name God commanded us that all churches should be named and built upon, the Cornerstone, the name which He gave to His Son by which you shall return to The Father. God has ordained One Way and One Way only. By Jesus Christ shall you enter into His rest...NO OTHER! By one man, Adam, were all men condemned to death because of sin; and by one man, Jesus, shall all men be made alive, having been freed from sin, and, thereby, the penalty of sin, death. Remember Paul's words, "Even a little leaven leaveneth the whole lump." So cast away the old and be made new in the whole Truth, completely free of the leaven of this world.

The Scriptures are of no private interpretation. Rather, understanding is given by God and received through Christ. Christ is the Spirit and the Word. He, of Himself, testifying to these things, saying, "Hear what the Spirit says to the churches." If He is not the Holy Spirit, then how is it that He also said, "If I do not go away, then the Helper/Comforter will not come, but if I go, then the Helper shall surely come". The Helper/Comforter (the Holy Spirit) did come after His resurrection, being that same part of Him He did breathe on His apostles, leaving that part of Himself that would remain with them and in them, even unto the end of the age, as Jesus has said. We also can receive of Him, if we accept Him as He really is, and accept all things He suffered for us, through our repentance in His name, who is also our Advocate before The Father. These things I have done. I have given completely of myself to God, by Christ...even to the relinquishing of my will, that He might make it His, and this He has done. My life is not my own, it is The Lord's, having been bought for a price, in blood, by The Lamb. So then, it is my reasonable duty to only serve Him who has bought me, and also freed me from the chains of sin and this world, that I might only serve Him in faith and in truth, not by man-made faith and corrupted truth, through misinterpretation and mistranslation of God's Word, but by pure righteousness, which comes from The Father through Christ The Lord. I am not perfect...I do stumble as all men. But from my weaknesses is Christ's strength in me made perfect, because I am forever striving to please and obey Him, first and foremost, not serving myself or my own will. Am I certain that which I write is in line with God's will?... Yes, because I feel His presence and hear His voice, the fruit of which the devil can not duplicate, nor does the devil stand divided against himself, nor can he proclaim that which is not in him, nor can he understand. The dark can not understand the light, and the father of lies can not proclaim the truth... the truth is not in him. So, I ask you, Rudolph: Why do you tempt The Lord through Craig and I?...To doubt the messengers is to deny He who sent them.

Jesus has given Craig and I the seeds to plant...even in our hearts do they grow. So I have planted, and Craig has watered, and God gives the increase through Christ. So I, of myself, am nothing, and Craig is nothing...only Christ matters, and the seeds He has given us to plant, which are the will of God carried out through Christ. And His will is that you hear my words, if now only as a correction, even a warning; so that when the fire comes, you shall escape its flames, which shall burn up all man's doctrine, you having received this knowledge in advance; so all wise men might become fools, even as I have become the fool in the world's eyes...so I might become wise in Christ, not of myself, but by Christ who dwells in me.

4/25/06 From Timothy, Written With Understanding Recieved From the Spirit -
A Letter For Rudolph, a Jehovah's Witness, and For All Those Who Have Ears to Hear

Here is wisdom concerning the resurrection of the dead. If Christ, being the firstfruits from the dead, by His resurrection has also made us alive, and by believing in Him we shall not die but have eternal life - then why is it that all those in Christ, from then until now, have fallen asleep in death?...Unless the promise is not yet fulfilled, only that death has been conquered by Jesus, and that He who has conquered death shall call those who are dead to awake, and those who are alive and remain to also rise, because we have already been awakened to Him...this is the first resurrection, the fulfillment of God's promise made to all those who accept Christ, being fully converted in their hearts. This is the Gospel I am sent out to preach, in Christ's name, the final testament to His glory, the Good News of His Second Coming. I preach the original Gospel also, and the final Gospel to you, Rudolph, this day, as God has commanded me, so you might be spared from The Lord's Day, the Week of Judgment, the Day of Troubles, the Trial by Fire I spoke of, where man's doctrines shall be burned up and all high places brought low. It is for love's sake, I write to you. Because God corrects and disciplines all those He loves, and especially those who would witness in His name.

You say I should know God's name if I am a true prophet. The Bible, itself, testifies I am not false, saying, "Every spirit, who confesses that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh, is of God. And every spirit, who confesses not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh, is not of God, and this is that spirit of antichrist, whereof you have heard that it should come, and now already is it in the world." And again, saying, "You shall know My prophets by their fruits. Do men gather grapes of thorns? Or figs of thistles? So every good tree brings forth good fruit, but a corrupt tree brings forth evil fruit. Neither can a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit. Every tree, that brings not forth good fruit, is hewn down, and cast into the fire...by their fruits you shall know them."

Rudolph, are you a prophet? How is it you know the name of God and say that I do not? What of Moses on Mt. Sinai, when He asked God's name? God answered him, "I am who I am." How shall we name the unnameable? How shall we know the unknowable?...By the name of Him, who alone knows God and was sent to us from God. I will answer you, Rudolph, but first let us remember who Jesus truly is, by His own mouth, because He is how we shall know God.

And He Shall Be Called I AM

I am The One Who Has the Sevenfold Spirit of God. I am The One Who Has the Key of David. I am He Who Opens Doors that No One Can Shut. I am The Ruler. I am The One Who Sits at the Right Hand of God. I am The In All, Be All of Existence. I am The True Vine. I am The Love That Never Fades. I am The Inspiration. I am The Star out of Jacob. I am Almighty. I am Reachable. I am Close to You. I am Your Helper. I am Your Comfort. I am Your Rear Guard. I am The One Who Longs to Hold You. I am He Who Gathers You to Him. I am Lord of Heaven and Earth. I am The HalleluYah. I am Your Advocate. I am Your Cloak. I am The Holy Presence. I am The Spirit. I am The Anchor. I am The Beloved of Men. I am The Nectar of Life. I am The Restoration of All Things. I am The Holder of the Book of Life. I am He Who Has Loved You Before the Foundation of the Earth. I am He Through Which You Were Made. I am Your Tears of Joy. I am Christ Jesus. I am For You and You For Me. I am Yeshua, The Gift. I am The Amen. I am The All in All... I AM.

What of who God is? He is the Creator of the universe, of which the very thought is far beyond the grasp of humans. What are we that He is even mindful of us? Let us give thanks, without ceasing, for the love of God. What is His name? His name is the Great I AM, Jehovah, God and Yahweh (YHWH), being interpreted: "I am who I am" or "I shall be what I shall be". God, Jehovah, Yahweh - these names were given to, and made by men, so we might speak of Him in a way others might understand. He is even referred to as Allah by the people of Ishmael, who are greatly misled. But when calling on His name, let us do it in the manner He has taught us, and by the only example He, Himself, provided in His only Begotten Son, who while on the cross about the ninth hour, cried out to Him, saying, "E'loi, E'loi (My God, My God)", which now we are commanded, in the same manner, to cry out to our God in the name of Jesus Christ. So again, I warn you, as also Jesus warned His disciples, to be wary of the leaven of the Pharisees and Saducees. Be wary of the doctrines of men and of the churches, who separate the body of Christ, thereby making none of them His true body, of which God only knows because our hearts are open before Him...we being the temple of God made without hands, being formed and shaped by His hands, even Christ through which we are twice made; corrupted vessels of dishonor, reshaped into vessels of honor for God's glory, which is also in Christ, who is both our Carpenter and Savior.

So Rudolph, I ask you to also read the Letter on page 31, entitled "Give Praise and Worship to The Son, For He is the Way to The Father", which was also written to another Jehovah's Witness, regarding the question of worship; and also the Letter, entitled "Only One Stands Above Reproach, and His Words are Also Above Reproach...Only Men, and Those Fallen, Stand in Judgment", written to a Seventh-Day Adventist, on page 161, concerning my gospel, which is not mine, but what The Lord has given me to give to all who would hear, so they might believe and be spared from the Day of God's wrath, though all is already written in the Scriptures of Truth, the Bible. But the Gospel must be preached in all manner of speaking and devices, in the whole world, before The Lord can come. To this end have I given up my life, as I would have made it, and strive to be the man God calls me to be.

Consume the whole Truth, the True Bread from Heaven, as God would have you eat it, and you will be satisfied. Pick and choose, according to your own palate and the desire of men, and you shall be left wanting and empty, vulnerable to disease, which is sin, having not fully ingested the Bread and Water sent from Heaven in Christ Jesus...The Spirit, the Water and the Blood, which washes you from sin (the blood), giving you the strength in the Word (water) to overcome through knowledge and understanding, received through the Spirit (Jesus), the Spirit which has now come to live in us if we accept and invite Him.

In Christ is our salvation,
Timothy

P.S. You might be interested to know that I am not a member of ANY church of men. Rather, I belong to my Lord Jesus Christ, and together with all those who are His, is the church in which I dwell. Nor have I ever been to church, nor has any man taught me these things. Nor did I, in the past, even believe in God as He really is or in Jesus. Rather, I once believed in nothing, and that man knows nothing yet as he ought to know. Then God spoke to me, and revealed all these things to me, overcoming me with the power of His presence, which is indescribable love and wisdom, causing me to humble myself before Him, not seeming to be able to get low enough because of my shame, thanking Him over and over for sending His Son to die for me ... my fate was sealed in the joy of knowing I shall serve Him the rest of my days, and even forever.
